Greetings, friends and neighbors!

June always feels like a bridge between seasons and celebrations. We've just finished celebrating Mother's Day, and Father's Day is right around the corner. These holidays remind us to pause and appreciate the parents, grandparents, stepparents, and other caring people who helped shape our lives. The sacrifices they make often happen quietly in the background—long days of work, sleepless nights, words of encouragement, home-cooked meals, and countless little acts of love that may not seem important at the time but stay with us for years. Whether your memories are joyful, bittersweet, or somewhere in between, this season gives us an opportunity to reflect on the people who cared for us and the lessons they passed along.

As we get older, many of us begin to understand our parents in a new way. We realize they were doing the best they could while balancing responsibilities, worries, and hopes for their families. Even small traditions—a favorite recipe, gardening advice, or family stories—become treasured parts of our own lives. If you have the chance this month, take a moment to call a parent, visit family, or simply tell someone you appreciate them. Those moments matter more than we sometimes realize.

I also want to include a quick reminder that I will be stepping down as newsletter editor after the July issue. We are still hoping someone in the community will consider stepping forward to take over the reins. I'll be happy to share my tips, tricks, templates, and anything else I've learned along the way to help make the transition easier. At the same time, the newsletter will belong to its next editor, and they should feel free to shape it in whatever way best fits their own personality and vision. Fresh ideas and new perspectives are always a good thing, and this could be a wonderful opportunity for someone looking to get involved.

Wishing everyone a happy Father's Day and a wonderful start to summer!

Around the Neighborhood!

We extend our condolences to Sheri Nowlin and her family on the passing of her husband, Ed Nowlin on May 11. Ed and Sheri have lived here since 2013. He served as president of the HOA for a time. Prior to his retirement he was a lineman for Utah Power & Light (now Rocky Mountain Power) and was the safety officer over several areas. He loved camping, messing with mechanical things and was active in the Calvary Chapel Church in Hurricane.

A memorial service will be held for Ed in the clubhouse on June 6 at 2:00 PM. A sandwich lunch will be provided by the family. If you would like to bring a treat to share, you may, but it is not expected.

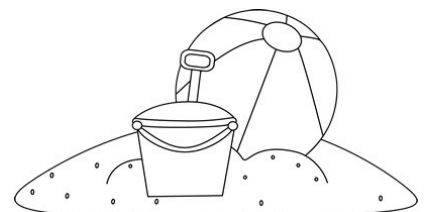

I need your eyes and ears. If you know of something noteworthy that our neighbors would find fun, interesting or uplifting, shoot me an email (marvelousmom2@yahoo.com). Bonus points if you have pictures!

Activities Committee Report

Are you ready for the June heat? Seems like it hit SUDDENLY, like one day it's a balmy and pleasant 75° and the next day it's 98° and you're staying indoors until the sun goes down. But never fear, the Activities Committee is here to offer some respite from the heat, with activities to get you out of the house with a chance of meeting your neighbors!

What happened in May:

At the end of April, we had Movie Night, watching Back to the Future III, with Marty and Doc finding romance and adventure in the old west.

Our Cinco de Mayo themed potluck on May 12 was so fun this time—16 people came and there was plenty of food for every one – many came back for seconds and thirds! We had a big pot for the Bingo game, with some happy winners! Thanks to everyone who contributed and participated.

Moms got free ice cream at the ice cream social in honor of Mother's Day. We had 8 people who came and enjoyed our yummy flavors!

Here's what's coming up this month. As always, watch the marquee for events and updates. This will be especially important if no one volunteers to write the newsletter. Maria will be stepping down after the July issue.

- Saturday, May 30 at 6:30 PM: Movie Night. Movie to be announced – watch the billboard. Movie snacks provided!
- Tuesday, June 9 at 5:30 PM: Potluck dinner and bingo – True potluck this time – bring a dish to share and a couple of dollars for bingo – you could be the big winner!
- Sunday, June 21 at 6:00 PM: Father's Day and Ice Cream Social – Dads are free for Father's Day! Come and enjoy!
- Saturday, June 27 at 6:30 PM: Movie night – movie to be announced – watch the marquee!

Looking ahead: Here are a few things that we have on the agenda for the upcoming months:

Due to the holidays in July, we moved the neighborhood BBQ to August, so stay tuned for that.

The Great Harrisburg Bake-Off will probably take place in the early fall when our snowbirds return, but it's still on the radar, so you have plenty of time to come up with a recipe to prove that you're the Greatest Baker in Harrisburg! Put on your chef's hat and watch for further announcements.

Until next time, Your Activities Committee

Friendly Reminder:

Please, please remember to be courteous and pick up after your dogs! We would like this to be a clean and friendly neighborhood. Everyone must contribute. Thank you!

(P.S. Dogs must be kept on a leash outdoors.)

Just for Laughs

A doctor walks into a room with a dying patient and tells him, "I'm sorry, but you only have ten left." The patient asks him, "Ten what, Doc? Hours? Days? Weeks?" The doctor calmly looks at him and says, "Nine."

I like to spend my weekends playing chess with elderly men in the park. But it's becoming more difficult. You try finding exactly 32 old guys.

What do you call bears with no ears? B.

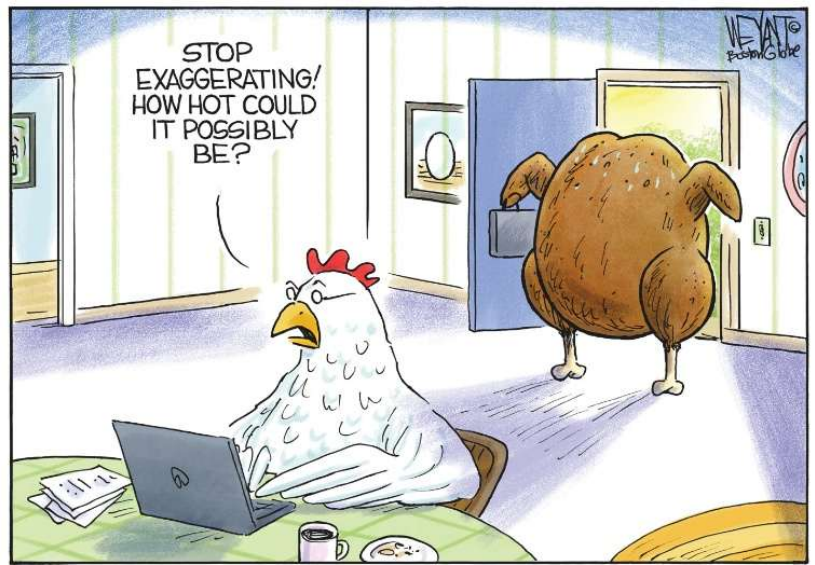

What's the difference between a wizard who raises the undead and a sexy vampire? One is a necromancer and the other is a neck romancer.

A man walks into a magic forest and tries to cut down a talking tree. "You can't cut me down," the tree complains. "I'm a talking tree!" The man responds, "You may be a talking tree, but you will dialogue."

Hashbrown/Egg Casserole

from Linda Bingham

Another requested recipe from the April brunch:

Ingredients:

- 24 oz frozen shredded potatoes
- Salt & pepper
- 12 eggs
- 2 c. Half & half
- 1 t. salt
- 1-1/2 c. grated cheddar cheese
- 1-1/2 c. grated Pepper jack cheese
- 2 c. chopped ham (or sausage, if you prefer)

Instructions:

1. Grease a 9 X 13 pan. Add the potatoes to the bottom of the pan. Sprinkle with salt and pepper.
2. In a large bowl, whisk together eggs, then add the half & half, both the cheeses and the ham.
3. Pour over the potatoes. Cover with foil and refrigerate for 2 hours, or overnight.
4. Bake, still covered at 350° for 90 minutes. Let rest for 10 minutes before serving.

Pigeon Appreciation Day is June 13

Without a doubt, many of you who read about this holiday initially think “What a dirty bird. Why do we have Pigeon Appreciation Day?” After you finish reading this article, you will likely become a fan of pigeons and celebrate this June 13 holiday. For example, we will describe to you how a single pigeon is credited with saving the lives of 194 American servicemen during World War I. That alone is a reason to celebrate pigeons in my book.

Pigeons get a bad rap, largely because there are so many of them on city streets scrounging for a free meal. But they are not dirty birds and do not spread disease as some believe. Pigeons are entertaining to watch. Just sit on a park bench and watch them in action. And while you are watching, feed them. Chances are they will remember you the next time you sit on a park bench. They remember the hand that feeds them.

The Story of Cher Ami, an American Hero

On October 3, 1918, U.S. Army Major Charles W. Whittlesey and 550 men under his command were caught by a hillside behind enemy lines. They had little food and ammunition. The Germans were pummeling them. In addition, allied forces did not know they were there, and the troops were suffering casualties from friendly artillery fire. Many American soldiers were killed or injured.

Desperate for relief, Major Whittlesey attached notes to homing pigeons seeking rescue. The first two homing pigeons sent out were shot down by German forces. Then, Whittlesey released a third homing pigeon named Cher Ami with the message “We are along the road parallel to 276.4. Our own artillery is dropping a barrage directly on us. For heavens sake stop it.”

Despite being shot twice, Cher Ami made it back to the Allied lines. This stopped the friendly fire shelling. Of the 550 men under Whittlesey’s command, only 194 survived thanks to Cher Ami. Cher Ami survived his injuries. He died on June 13, 1919.

The Bargaindales table brought in $158 for the month of May!! Thank you! Please remember that items are not free—put your donations in the box.

For those of you who are new, The Bargaindales table is located in the southeast corner of the clubhouse, near the pool table. This is where residents can donate items in good condition that are no longer being used. You can also purchase anything on the table that you want to have for a price that you think is reasonable (thank you for being generous). Put your payment in the locked box on the wall next to the table. Your donations go to the Activities Committee and the Improvement Committee to pay for all the fun activities we have and putting in new flowers, etc. Contact MaryAnn Roberts if you have any questions about donations.
